EDITOR'S NOTE

Calling All Gamers!

The time we have all been waiting for is almost here! It's been five plus years since the release of an American version of DBZ for any gaming platform. Dragon Ball Z The Legacy of Goku will be released next month. Inside we take a look at The Legacy of Goku and The Collector Card game for Game Boy Advance. The Collector Card game is set for a June release date. The Legacy of Goku hits the stores late next month and we are bringing behind the scenes look at each of the games.

What's new for 2002? Brace yourself! We were in New York for the 2002 American International Toy Fair. This show is the largest toy trade show in the Western Hemisphere. Nearly 2,000 manufacturers, distributors, importers and sales agents from 30 countries will showcase their toy and entertainment products here. In this month's Fantastic Plastic column we take you to the show and look at the upcoming DBZ toys being released by IF Labs and Irwin Toy.

With summer almost here it's time to get those surfboards waxed and ready to go. Your probably thinking, what if I don't own a surfboard or live close to the beach. That's okay, the type of surfing were talking about is on your computer! We have found some new DBZ Web sites that will enhance your surfing techniques. Check out our latest DBZ Online column on page 48.

Game on! Cell Games, the next release from Score, is here and on page 41 you can catch the latest release of the CCG. On that note, the latest release from Irwin Toy (Series 20) includes new promo cards from Score and as popular as IR1 Super Saiyan Goku and IR2 Super Saiyan Gohan were, these cards will go fast! Check out the Price Guide section for a complete checklist of the toy promos.

The Good, The Bad & the

What would Dragon Ball Z be without its line-up of intense characters? The series' backbone lies within each character's individual personas, not to mention their personal strengths and weaknesses. Each character has a distinct personality, and after watching the show for a while, you'll come to know the character, as you would a close friend... or perhaps an enemy. Which is why, in this section, we will tell you a little bit about each character so you can get to know them even better than you already do.

Uub

Just before killing Buu, Goku makes a quite wish that his opponent would be resurrected as a good person so that he could spar with him. Apparently King Yemma was listening that day because Buu is indeed reborn as Uub. Born to a poor family in a small and impoverished village, despite his young age, Uub is a very strong fighter, (although if looks were any indication of strength, it seems like a small breeze would knock him down).

First appearing at the 28th Tenkaichi Budoukai, Uub is participating so that he can use the prize money to aid his family and village. Goku knows that Uub is really stronger than he looks, (or realizes for that matter). In order to get matched with Uub in the first round of fighting, Goku coaxes Mr. Buu into helping him match their numbers. During their bout, Uub seems hesitant to attack, (he's just a little kid after all), but Goku rectifies that by insulting the boy's family, (specifically his mom), and of course like any good son, Uub goes into a fit of rage and attacks Goku viciously to defend his mother's name. Uub finally manages to kick Goku, but Goku is able to block the attack with his arm. After he relaxes though, he realizes his arm hurts! Goku offers to take Uub to train with him in Kami's Palace, and Uub agrees since his family will be taken care of by money that's black-mailed from Mr. Satan. As Goku and Uub fly off into the sky, thus ends Dragon Ball Z.

Flash forward five years to the start of Dragon Ball GT, Goku and Uub are still training. On the very day Uub leaves to return to his village, Goku is turned into a kid by Pilaf. Much later, during the fight against Vegeta Baby, Uub fuses with Mr. Buu and pits himself against the foe while Goku is getting his tail "re-grown". Uub manages to stall Vegeta Baby for a little bit, but is eventually turned into chocolate and consumed by Baby. (This act eventually works to the benefit of the Z Soldiers) In the end of Dragon Ball GT, Uub is a force to be reckoned with, but still seems to be a speck compared to the likes of a Saiyan. Oh well, maybe he'll have better luck in his next life!

UNEARTHING THE DATA OF DRAGON BALL Z CHARACTERS

Super Hell-Fighter 17

After the Cell Saga, Artificial Human 17 went off by himself and lived in the wilderness. That would have been where he spent the rest of his days, if only Dr. Gero weren't so persistent as to let something like being in Hell stop him from trying to kill Goku. When Dr. Myu dies, he wanders around Hell in a state of confusion until he meets Dr. Gero. The two discuss their common hatred for Goku and Saiyans in general. They form an alliance to work together to take revenge on Goku and restore themselves to life on Earth. In order to escape the confines of Hell, they create New Android 17. He is identical to the old Android 17 except that it is entirely mechanical based and 100% loyal to its master. When the time comes, New 17 fuses his "heart" with the 17 on Earth and in doing so, creates a portal between Hell and Earth. This unleashes a fury of old enemies onto the planet, some who had never even been there before.

When New 17 himself comes through the gap, it closes, sealing Goku inside. When he meets up with the old 17 and after controlling his mind and forcing him to kill Krillin, he joins with Original 17 and they become Super Hell-Fighter 17! Super Hell-Fighter is a particularly vexing foe because he absorbs attacks directly through his chest. When Goku tries to use a 10x Kamehameha on him, he absorbs the attack and becomes even stronger. Ouch! Android 18 and Goku join forces to defeat him. Android 18 launches energy balls at him while Goku attacks with the Dragon Fist, (a move he first uses in Dragon Ball Z Movie 13), and blows a hole through 17's chest leaving him open....literally....to any attack. And thus ends the incredibly short Super Hell-Fighter 17 saga, which is merely a set-up for the last saga of Dragon Ball, The Evil Shenron Saga.

Toy Fair 2002 in New York, NY

A Year's Worth of DBZ Toys at a Glance

Irwin and IF Labs have incredible lineups of Dragon Ball Z products planned for release this year. Most of it was on display at this year's Toy Fair, which took place from February 10-14 in New York, NY. The Toy Fair, which is not open to the public, is an annual event where toy companies display everything they're planning to produce in the coming year. In order to entice retailers to order their products, toy manufacturers bring out one of a kind items and prototypes. The response from buyers at Toy Fair can determine whether a toy gets made at all, or the scale on which it will be produced.

Because many of the toys that Irwin had on display had not yet been approved by FUNimation, they only allowed the media to photograph a few items. However, they did allow us photos of a few upcoming figures, such as Yakon and Evil Buu from Series 10 and 11, and Majin Buu/Super Buu from the second series of Secret Saiyan Warriors. These figures are indicative of the quality and care that has gone into the whole line.

IF Labs, on the other hand, allowed photographs of everything they had on display. Below is your first look at the second series of both the Dragon Ball and Dragon Ball Z lines! The third series of Dragon Ball figures (which were not on display) will include Ox King, Murasaki, Jackie Chun and Chi Chi; the third series of Dragon Ball Z figures (also not on display) will include Super Buu, Gotenks, Vegito, and Super Saiyan 3 Goku.

You want toys, Okay!

Wall to wall toys! There are many interesting things on this wall! First, check out the packaging for the new Striking Z Fighters and Energy Glow figures, which are towards the center on the pegs. Next, check out the prototype packaging for the Red Ribbon Battlesuit and Stomp Cycle on the right side of the first shelf. Also notice the prototype packaging for the One-Wheel Motorcycle and Capsule Corp Cycle #67 on the right, and Trunks' Hover Car and Vegeta's Saiyan Capsule on the left.

Lab Experiment

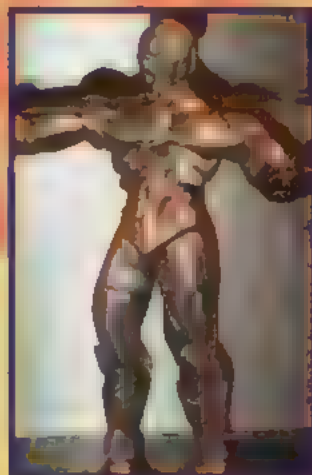

IF Labs Dragon Ball Series 2 and Dragon Ball Z Series 2, which was released in March and continues through August/September 2002, retails between $15.00 - $20.00.

Models

We also had a sneak peak at the next series of Irwin DBZ Model Kits. On display were the box mock-ups for the third and fourth series. Scheduled release is this spring and summer, respectively. The third series will include Androids 16 & 20, Perfect Cell and Gohan; the fourth set will include Spopovich, Dabura, Super Saiyan Gohan and Great Saiyaman.

Shh! It's a Secret!

Majin Buu will transform into Super Buu, in a reverse twist for the second series of Secret Saiyan Warriors. The set will also include Perfect Cell/Imperfect Cell, Vegeta/Majin Vegeta, and Goku/Super Saiyan 3 Goku.

Attack!

The second series of Striking Z Fighters should be out in stores now! The third series will include Super Buu (with stretchy action), Super Saiyan 3 Goku, Super Saiyan 3 Gotenks, and Dabura.

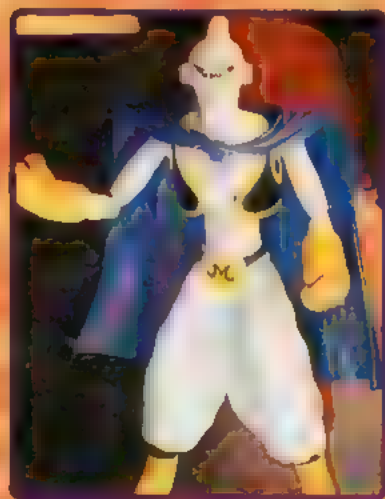

Series 9-12

Series 9, which will be released in late spring, will include Hercule, Krillin, Pui Pui, Babidi and Majin Buu with Dabura-cookie and Bee (his puppy). Yakon, which is huge next to other figures, will be released in series 10 in the summer of 2002. The scene also contains Super Saiyan Gohan (in school uniform), Bulma, Yamcha and Super Saiyan Vegeta. Evil Buu will be included in Series 11, and is scheduled for release in the fall of 2002. Also look for Super Saiyan 3 Goku, Gotenks, Super Saiyan Gohan and Supreme Kai with Kibito. Series 12 is set for a winter release. This series will include Mystic Gohan, Super Saiyan Gotenks with Kamikaze Ghosts, Tien, Vegito and Super Buu.

All in all, the coming year looks like an exciting one for Dragon Ball Z collectors! ★

Surfing Circles

Web surfing, like ocean surfing, can be loads of fun if you catch the perfect "wave." To surf the web, you simply choose a site to start with, then click on links and see where you wind up. Just as an ocean surfer may sit in the water and let ordinary waves roll by waiting for a good one, so the intrepid web surfer will scout around for something different before beginning.

Among the hundreds of sites sent in by sharp-eyed readers in the past month, one really stood out as being, well, different:

Think Pink - an Unconventional Shrine to Vegeta, at http://www.geocities.com/velika_vegeta/Vegeta.html certainly lives up to its claim.

The pages are organized by color, and perhaps colors that most fans wouldn't choose for these characters. The Vegeta Pink Shirt pages contain lots of great screen snaps and typical quotes like, "That does it! That's it! This planet is history!" There doesn't appear to be any quotes regarding what Vegeta would think about having a pink shirt, so we will just have to imagine it.

Bulma gets a "dash of teal" with more pictures, and memorable quotes like, "Why is it that you Saiyans can train all day but can't mow the lawn or take out the trash?" There's also a guide to episodes where Vegeta and Bulma are together. The purple section belongs to Trunks, with characteristic lines like, "You really don't have all day—more like 5 minutes!"

The color palette section features fan art, entirely done by Velika Vegeta, the person responsible for the whole Think Pink site. Finally, the monochromatic section offers a link to surf over to Mai's Manga Nook at http://www.geocities.com/manga_mai/.

Mai's pages are devoted to a half dozen different Manga titles, and two of them are Dragon Ball comic books (Dragon Ball and Dragon Ball Z). A collection of black and white scans from the comics are provided on the site that are well chosen and craftily commented.

Mai's number one link is to the Anime Infatuation page at http://www.geocities.com/jenna_mcnacky/, where the site slogan is, "When anime is all you live for." While the site carries a lot of nice artwork and a bit of information for folks who are new to anime, mostly it features more links! A good one to grab onto is Galeria Roqueta, at http://www.geocities.com/jen_roqueta/, featuring "art the way it should be." Here's a nice selection of Jennie Starwind's original cels, including some nifty Dragon Ball collector's items.

The Pagoda section offers a choice of paths, and one of them is the Way of the Dragon, putting forth the theory that Team Rocket is descended from the Dragon Ball characters! Is this true? Are Mai and Shao the same as Jessie and James? Take a look and see.

Afterward, you can jump to the next link, Cecil Figaro's Art Book, found at <http://www.geocities.com/cecilfigaro/>.

Cecil has amazingly composed an entire web site of his own DBZ artwork. It may not be quite as professionally done as the stuff on the cartoon program, but it is original, and you won't find this stuff anywhere else.

Checking Cecil's links, we find an intriguing looking one called The Cardboard Kame House (http://www.geocities.com/velika_vegeta/), run by our old friend Velika Vegeta! Apparently we have surfed around in a complete circle! Try that one in the ocean!

This site is very different from her Think Pink pages. Here, Velika reports on Dragon Ball finds at various stores. Some of her finds are quite interesting, and are updated frequently. She also has a cool report on her visit to the Coast to Coast Dragon Ball Z Power Tour, complete with photos of her and some of the voice actors.

Now the fascinating part of this little surfing journey into cyberspace is the fact that all of the sites I visited kind of came back to each other. There's a good reason for this. The Internet is where communities unlike any that existed before have come to exist. People with shared interests have gotten together, exchanged links, and turned a small group of individual web sites into a large mega site. Each of the pages in this conglomeration are different from each other, and visitors to any of them can get a nice variety of stuff by following the links.

When you create your own Dragon Ball web pages, the best thing to do is to email other webmasters who have pages you'd like to link up with. By swapping and sharing links, you will eventually form a group of sites with more impact and drawing power that anything you could come up with by yourself. In the process, you'll meet people from far away places, and make your circle of friends expand around the world.

I'm always interested in new and different Dragon Ball web sites. Feel free to tell me about your favorites by sending an email to me at revry@panix.com. I wish I could answer every one I get, but that's become impossible due to the huge number I get. Nevertheless, I read all the email, and try to visit every site. ★

BANNED & RESTRICTED:

Rule Book Review

This month I'd like to discuss the latest card rulings as of mid-March, and take a look at how some of the regionals locations across the country are turning out, as well as which decks are winning.

Rulings

As of early February, and updated in March, Score has made a new rulings document, to overrule the Cell Saga Guidebook information and card clarifications. This helps to keep fairness in the game, and to keep it fun. Among the main changes are some of the following:

- 1) Allies are limited to one copy per deck and are considered named cards.
- 2) When you 'attach' a Non-Combat Card to another card (ex. attaching Terrible Wounds to your opponent's Main Personality), any card played afterwards cannot affect it. (If your opponent played City In Turmoil, your opponent still cannot raise their anger, until they satisfy the needs of Terrible Wounds, or the card being used).
- 3) Eyes Of The Dragon (Saiyan Saga, Uncommon, #157) is now read: "Use when needed. After performing a successful energy attack, search your life deck for a Dragon Ball, place it in play, and then capture a Dragon Ball from your opponent. Limit 1 per deck."
- 4) Ribs Broken (Saiyan Saga, Rare, #217) now reads "Energy attack for 5 life cards. Costs 0 power stages to perform. You must remove an Ally in play from the game in order to perform this attack, this does not have to be an Ally you control."
- 5) Two new restricted cards, as seen in the list to the side.
- 6) Straining Energy Move and Blue Rush now read "If successful, end Combat." Rather than allowing you to end Combat even if the attack is stopped.

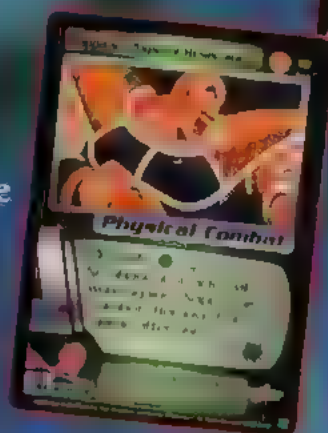

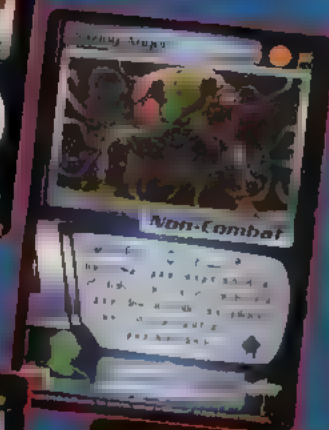

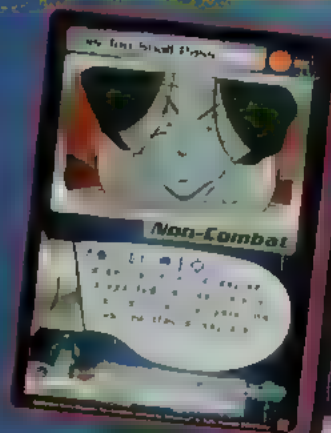

HERE IS THE LIST OF THE CURRENT BANNED/RESTRICTED CARDS.

Regionals

At MegaCon in Florida, over 70 Dragon ball Z enthusiasts piled into the convention, and duked it out for six long rounds. In the end, two blue decks prevailed, one with Vegeta, and the winner of the tournament, with his Android 18 deck. Yet the story hardly changed in Los Angeles for OreCon, when 42 players gathered, again, an Android 18 deck triumphed over all. Fortunately Android 18 isn't showing too much dominance in game play, because of the Gohan deck's winning in Vancouver in early February. When the regional, national, or world tournament comes to your area, be ready for an onslaught of Android 18 decks, and learn the metagame well, it will come in handy. ★
